

PROGRAMME OUTCOME OF BENGALI (HONOURS AND GENERAL) PROGRAMME

Students successfully completed Bachelor of Arts Degree in Bengali Programme will be able to

- Express a broad awareness of the representative literary and cultural texts of Bengali literature and their historical, geographical and cultural contexts, recognizing that these have served a role in social change.
- Write analytically in a variety of formats including essays, research papers, reflective writing and critical reviews of secondary sources.
- Discuss various major philosophical and cultural issues addressed in Bengali literature.
- Distinguish the genres of Bengali literature (drama, poetry, fiction and non-fiction) and various approaches to reading literature with acuity and insight (e.g. Realism, Romanticism, Naturalism, Impressionism, Expressionism, Modernism etc.)
- Demonstrate in oral and written form and evaluate primary documents according to rubrics of various literary critical approaches.
- Respond in an informed manner to the ways in which texts highlight ethical issues understanding their responsibilities as readers to ethical practice and social justice.
- Do research using print and electronic resources to create new synthesis of ideas addressed in Bengali literature.
- Demonstrate an attitude to service and commitment to social changes.