

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

Students are expected to treat the members of the staff of all categories and their fellow students with courtesy both within the campus and outside.

When assembled, every student of the class must consider herself responsible for maintaining academic atmosphere of the class room.

Students are expected to be in their place when the bell rings at the commencement of every period. They are not to enter or leave the class without permission of the teacher.

Students should not loiter and indulge in noisy and disorderly conduct in the college yard or corridor.

When a teacher is absent or is otherwise unable to take class, students will maintain strict order among themselves so as not to disturb the adjoining classes.

The reputation of the college mainly depends on the discipline of the students. Gross misconduct or breach of discipline by any student will be reported to her guardian and may entail expulsion from the college.

If a student is continuously absenting herself from attending class lectures for a considerable length of time or her attendance is very irregular, such absence or irregularity will be reported if she fails to account for it satisfactorily.

If any student is continuously absent from her classes for 15 consecutive days without information, her name may be deleted from the Register without prior notice.

Copying or taking unfair means in examination halls or exercising impersonation at roll call will be considered as gross misconduct and would be dealt with severely.

Noisy or disorderly conduct inside the college and repeated breaches of rules regarding the use of the Library, Laboratory, Museum, Common Room and misuse of the college premises or college property, damaging or defacing, are serious offences.

Use of cell-phones in class rooms and corridors of the college is strictly prohibited. Any student violating this prohibition shall face stringent disciplinary measures.

If any college property is damaged when a class is in progress the loss may be recovered by a fine imposed upon the whole class, if the student or students responsible for such damage cannot be identified.

Students should not enter the Teachers' Room without permission.

Gross misconduct or breach of college discipline will be punished with immediate suspension or expulsion.

The College premise is under CCTV Surveillance.

Students unable to attend classes due to illness are required to submit Medical Certificate from certified medical professional. Such certificate must mention the exact cause and dates on which the student was advised absence from college.
