A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE WORKSHOP

A One Day Workshop was arranged on 17.06.2023 at Surendranath College Auditorium on the New B. Com Curriculum and Syllabi under the New Education Policy introduced by the Central Government of India. This initiative was arranged by Umeschandra College in association with UGBOS in Commerce, University of Calcutta, Sivanath Sastri College, and Surendranath College.

The dais on the day was graced by Dr. Runa Biswas – the Principal, Sivanath Sastri College, Dr. Indranil Kar – Principal, Surendranath College, Dr. MD. Tofazzal Haque – Principal, Umeschandra College and Dr. Dhruba Ranjan Dandapat – Professor University of Calcutta.

The workshop had started from 10:30 a.m. at Surendranath College. It was a whole day program and it ended at 05:00 p.m.

To begin the program Prof. Mriganka Gope of Umeschandra College was present there to give the welcome speech before starting of the program. After this the inaugural session started. A brief introduction of the NEP was given. The process through which this NEP could be implemented in the course structure of B.Com. colleges were also shared. After this brief session the tea break was announced.

After the tea break the workshop resumed. Dr. Dhruba Ranjan Dandapat continued with the second session. Mainly he discussed about which semester would have what paper. Giving importance to mainly the INDIAN ECONOMICS, MATHEMATICS and MICRO ECONOMICS subjects. Special mention was there about Information technology as it is a value-added course. In Semester One and Semester Two what all subjects can be taught and kept in the syllabus were discussed. In Semester Seven and Eight what papers could be kept will be mostly finalized after a discussion with the Post Graduation
