

❖ Departmental Activities of Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce organizes departmental activities from time to time to increase the overall developments of the students and to increase their practical and employability skills which will help them to serve the competitive business world. The departmental activities conducted are focused on imparting technical knowledge along with its application in the practical world. The department organizes various events like, seminars by different eminent speakers from different organizations to enhance their value added skills, career development and knowledge enhancement, invited lectures, seminar on entrepreneurship skill development, organizing special lectures by extended resource persons, project preparation on different accounting, finance, management, non-financial reporting framework, corporate social responsibility, e-commerce and other upcoming topics so as to enhance their research abilities, campus recruitment and placement programme, and environmental awareness programmes through preparation of environmental projects. In addition, the department, also, organizes Parent Teachers' Meeting from time to time to build an interface between the parents, teachers and students.

The department of commerce organizes different orientational programs organized by different institutes like Financial Awareness Program by Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) Institute Ltd., Campus to Corporate Grooming Session by International School of Management Studies (ISMS) Pune, Financial Quiz, Orientation and Awareness Program by CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) Institute, Workshop on Investment Awareness with Special Reference to Mutual Funds, organized by Department of Commerce and IQAC, special lectures taken by Professors from City College of Commerce and Business Administration, entrepreneurial and managerial skill enhancement week, Tata Consultancy

Services Placement Drive for B.Com. Students, lecture arranged on Motivation and Ethics, delivered, by Prof. TilakBhattarcharya and many others. The department also motivates students to participate on different inter-college debate competition, paper presentations on accounting, finance, management and other topics to enhance their academic and research abilities. The college also organizes prizes and awards for students securing highest marks in different subjects and for overall performance and developments.